

Fact Sheet – Stephen Harrison

Professional

- Initiating Founder and Trustee of Project Management Institute New Zealand (PMINZ) (1994)
- Director of Membership, PMINZ (1994, 1995). International recognition of PMINZ for membership growth and retention during this period.
- Developed and presented first training course for PMP exam preparation for PMINZ (1995) with 100% pass rate for first course.
- President, PMINZ (1996)
- Recipient, Chapter President of the Year — Region 1 award from PMI. Region 1 covered all countries except the USA.
- Director, PMI (international body) (1998 – 2003). First person elected from outside North America to Board.
- Led development of PMI's globalisation strategy and the monitoring of its implementation (1999 - 2001).
- Delegation leader to China for PMI. Met with officials of several Chinese government agencies and ministries and the United Nations Industrial Development Organisation.
- Recipient, 2004 Distinguished Contribution award from PMI (international)
- Recipient, Fellow of Project Management Institute New Zealand (2004)

Business

- Established own business in December 1994 which focuses on strategic management, project management and leadership.
- Project managed first fully integrated EFTPOS solution in New Zealand (1994 for Woolworths/Big Fresh)
- Provides project management services including organisational and project reviews, coaching, methodology implementation, workshops to support project activities (E.g. reviewed Telecoms cdmaOne project for 027 network implementation)
- Clients have included Bechtel International, Citibank, IBM, Hewlett Packard, Nokia, US Marine Corp., Maori Television Service, Telecom New Zealand Ltd, New Zealand Institute of Management, Northpower, Metrowater.

Harrison International Ltd
PO Box 22-827
Otahuhu, Auckland 1640
New Zealand

Phone: +64 9 277-7756
Email: hlway@harrison.co.nz
Web Site: www.harrison.co.nz

"Encouraging and developing business excellence"

Conference Papers

- “Appreciate the Fog: Working through Uncertainty and Confusion to Achieve Project Success”, PMINZ conference, Wellington, New Zealand, October 2004
- “Project Management: The Evolution of a Global Profession”, First International Project Management Conference of China, Beijing, Peoples Republic of China, April 2002
- “Status of PMI Globalization Program”, International Project Management Congress, Tokyo, Japan, November 2001
- “Project Management Professional Certification as a Positive Career Move”, PMINZ conference, Wellington, New Zealand, November 1995
- “Project Estimation and Control”, IT Project Management conference, Wellington, August 1995

Articles

- Developing risk management capability. Projects & Profits, April 2004, IV(4), 31-35.
- A model for leadership success. Projects & Profits, October 2003, III(11), 11-16.
- Professional development – a key area within PMI”, PMI Today, Aug. 2003
- Interview: project management is not a discipline that can be mastered on a one or two day training course. Projects & Profits, September 2002, 11(9), 67.
- “Ethics are an increasing concern in a global organization”, PMI Today, Mar. 2002
- “PMI heritage – Past and future”, PMI Today, Mar. 2001
- “Globalization Project Action Team – a successful conclusion”, PMI Today, Sep. 2000
- “Globalization update”, PMI Today, May 2000
- “Globalization and It’s relevance to PMI stakeholders”, PMI Today, Jan. 2000

Books

- Author: Harrison, S. G. (2008). Project Management in Aotearoa (New Zealand). Project Manager's Handbook: Applying Best Practices Across Global Industries, 47-60.

Qualifications

- BSc (Hons.) in Computer Science, University of Auckland
- Masters Certificate in Project Management, George Washington University
- PMP® certification, Project Management Institute