

PMP® Preparation Coaching

Have you wondered how you can get the best value for your time when preparing for the PMP exam? Does the idea of studying in isolation for a professional exam fill you with dread? Does spending hours with groups where large portions of your valuable time may be wasted on subjects of low priority to you frustrate you?

With over a rapidly growing number certified Project Management Professionals (PMP's) world-wide, certification by the Project Management Institute (PMI®) is increasingly sought after. Passing an exam of 200 multiple choice questions is a prerequisite for successful completion.
